Summary

The Zoning Bylaw amendments, adopted by the January 23, 2006 Town Meeting, Warrant Article 9, created a new overlay zoning district, the Town Center Overlay District ("the TC"). As an overlay district, the TC changes various provisions of the Town's Zoning Bylaw that apply to land in the underlying zoning district. The TC's purposes include encouraging mixed-use development, pedestrian accessibility, open space, and landscaping. All development in the TC, except for single-family dwellings, is subject to site plan approval by the Planning Board. Certain uses also require a special permit. Among the uses allowed by right are single through multi-family dwellings, fitness centers, and retail stores of less than 20,000 square feet. Building permits for residential units are limited to 40 per year (subject to certain exemptions) and not more than 25% of the total floor area of all buildings may be residential. Among the uses allowed by special permit are retail stores larger than 20,000 square feet, performance theaters, and parking structures for more than three vehicles. The TC decreases some of the dimensional requirements that apply to uses in the underlying district to the minimum lot size or frontage requirements. The TC also makes changes to the Definitions and Use Regulations sections of the Zoning Bylaw to incorporate the other amendments. The TC includes a provision called a "Transfer of Development Rights," which allows the transfer of development rights from one parcel in the TC to another parcel. A parcel that cannot be developed now would not be developable under that provision. Other restrictions apply regarding eligibility of a parcel for such transfer.

A YES VOTE would confirm the vote of the January 23, 2006, Town Meeting, amending the Zoning Bylaws to create a Town Center Overlay District.

A NO VOTE would reverse the vote of the January 23, 2006, Town Meeting, and would result in no amendment being made to the Zoning Bylaws.

The polls were open at 8:00 A.M. at the Burlington High School. All precinct workers were sworn in by the Wardens, machines and ballot boxes were all checked, memory packs were sealed, and all counters were set at zero. The polls closed at 8:00 P.M.
