Historical Commission Meeting Notes-January 16, 2019-Grandview Farm

The meeting was called to order at 7:00 p.m. by Chair, Joyce Fay. In attendance were Sandy Coveno, Rob Costa, Joyce Fay, Peter Coppola, Kathi Horton and Mary Nohelty.

Opening: Pledge of Allegiance

Secretary’s Report: Read and accepted

Treasurer’s Report: Read and accepted.

New Business: Museum Progress: At least one more shelving unit is needed for the Museum. Dan McCormack will order a shelving unit.

Tools and kitchen objects have been organized at the Museum. Seven typewriters will be picked up for restoration. Clocks will be restored and repaired. Peter Coppola will contact a clock expert for information. We will obtain bids to repair/restore clocks.

Annual Report is complete and due mid-February.

Trifold Committee are working on the design of the trifold with the end result of encouraging citizens to see the importance of preservation in our town which is essential to maintaining a unique and meaningful identity as a community. The Burlington Historical Commission is here to preserve our history.

Old Business: 17 Sears Street, a 109 year old house, possibly being torn down by a contractor with the plan of demolishing this home and starting a Day-Care Business. Selectman, Chris Hartling, has sent the Commission a letter explaining the situation. There will be a public meeting at Grandview for discussion.

Library Display: We will do a display for Valentine’s Day at the Library.

Meeting Adjourned at 8:15 p.m.

Respectfully Submitted: Mary Nohelty
