Press Release
February 16, 2018

Donate Your Used Book to the Friends!

If you have gently used books, DVDs or music CDs, please consider donating them to the Friends of the Burlington Public Library. The Friends have a book cart, located across from the circulation desk, where you can drop off your donations which will be used for their upcoming book sales. If you wish to donate more than a bag or a box worth of books per day, please keep an eye out for a future Friends Book Collection Day.

Adult Coloring & Craft Group – Monday, February 26 6:30-8pm

Join us on the fourth Monday of every month for an evening of relaxed creativity and camaraderie. No need to register, just drop in. All materials will be provided, but feel free to bring your own.

Youth Services Programs

The library will be party central this week! Saturday we'll have a Frozen Party with a visit from Frozen characters and a snowplow full of games and crafts. In the afternoon, we'll be showing the movie Wonder for teens to enjoy along with their build-your-own-calzones. March first we'll celebrate Dr. Seuss' birthday, with stories, games, and cake! The Frozen and Seuss parties are for all ages, so no one gets left out. Come enjoy our Winter Games!

Despicable Me 3 - Thursday, February 22, 11 am-1 pm - Movie and popcorn for all ages!

Teen Lounge Friday - February 23 and March 2, 9, 16, & 23 @ 2:30-4:30 pm Celebrate the end of the week with Nicole! Grades 6-12

Hot Cocoa and Edible Sleds (End of Winter Beading) - Friday, February 23, 1-2 pm Amanda invites you to come build sleds out of graham crackers and candy and drink cocoa while she announces the raffle winners of the kids' winter beading program. (Pre K-Grade 5)

Frozen Festival - Saturday, February 24, 11 am-Noon Come for Frozen related games and crafts led by our Teen Advisory Group!

Teen Movie and Calzones - Saturday, February 24, 12:30-3 pm Nicole invites you to vote for a movie to watch along with build-your-own calzones!

Preschool Fun and Games - Monday, February 26, 1-1:45 pm Join Mary for games that build your bodies and your minds.

Lego Club - Monday, February 26, 3:45-4:45 pm We provide the legos, we provide the imagination!

Mother-Daughter Book Club Middle School - Monday, February 26, 7-8 pm Join Nicole for this month's book, Maya Van Wagenen's Popular: Vintage Wisdom for a Modern Geek. Grades 4-8

After School Story & Craft - Wednesday, February 28, 3:30-4:15 pm Join Amanda for a storytime, followed by a related craft.
