Check Out a Bag with Your Books!

Do you need a bag for your books when visiting the library? Then borrow one from us! The Burlington Public Library is now circulating canvas tote bags, in order to help you and to keep Burlington green. They check out for 3 weeks, with 2 renewals, just like our books. Stop by and check one out today!

Thursday Evening Book Discussion Group – Thursday, November 29, 7-8:30pm

The library's Thursday Evening Book Discussion Group will gather to discuss 'Just Mercy' by Bryan Stevenson. Pam Foresman will led the discussion. Copies are available at the circulation desk now.

Youth Services Programs

When school's out (Thursday, November 29), bring your kids in. There's plenty to do at the library! We'll have a Family Movie Day with popcorn in the early afternoon. Later, we'll knock their socks off with some non-explosive science experiments for Grades K-5.

Preschool Games - Monday, November 26, 1-1:45 pm Join Mary for games that build your bodies and your minds.

Teen Event - Monday, November 26, 6:30-8 pm Play Sushi Go while watching anime; later, make candy sushi with Nicole. You can make those to go, or eat them right away.

iToddler - Tuesday, November 27, 10:30-11 am Join Amanda for an interactive storytime using stories and songs projected from an iPad.

iPreschool - Tuesday, November 27, 1:30-2 pm Preschool version of iToddler.

After School Story and Craft - Wednesday, November 28, 3:30-4:15 pm Join Amanda for a longer story and a more complicated craft. Wear your grubbies in case of spills. Grades K-3

Family Movie Day - Thursday, November 29, 11 am-1:45 pm Enjoy a movie and popcorn for the entire family.

Science Blast - Thursday, November 29, 4-4:45 pm Have a blast doing experiments with Amanda. Grades K-5

Teen Lounge - Friday, November 30, 2:30-4:30 pm Kick back at the end of a long week with Nicole and your friends over games and snacks.

Elsa's Holiday Party - Saturday, December 1, 11-11:45 am Meet and take photos with Elsa and Anna, play Frozen games and do Frozen crafts.

Christmas Movie - Saturday, November 30, 12:30-2:15 pm Watch a hilarious family Christmas movie. Lunch provided!
