Historical Commission Meeting Notes: June 20, 2018 Grandview Farm

The meeting was called to order at 7:00 p.m. by Chair, Joyce Fay. In attendance were: Joyce Fay, Kathi Horton, Sandi Coveno, Dottie Bennett, Mike Tredeau, Peter Coppola, Mary Nohelty.

Also present was Jean Patterson, a neighbor of 121 Lexington Street; and a history student and her mother, Jean and Jessica Rodriguez.

Opening: Pledge of Allegiance

Secretary’s Report was read and accepted.

Treasurer’s Report was read and accepted. We can extend spending into July for already ordered items.

New Business: Kathi will secure third grade tour dates more closely with teachers. Grandview tour is best on Mondays.

Museum: Frank Anderson pulled a permit for electrical work. Cabinets will be up by July. We all must work at organizing in the basement of the Museum.

The summer schedule for open house at the Museum on Saturdays is: July 14th, August 4th and 11th and Sept 8th. Francis Wyman House is open 1 – 3:00 p.m.

We would like to have an open house for town employees at the Museum on a date to be decided.

Old Business: Discussion on 121 Lexington Street. Discussed the importance of the Community Preservation Act. Ideally a grant to be given to the owner of a historic home to maintain that home.

We will attempt to save the mantle/wainscoting at 121 Lexington Street.

John Goff has received payment.

Other Business: Our next meeting is September 19th. We will have election of officers.

Meeting Adjourned at 8:40 p.m.

Respectfully Submitted: Mary Nohelty
