Narrative:

Male party was walking down Middlesex Tpk carrying a plastic tube. He waved and yelled to a car of friends as it drove by and it appears as though the RP thought he was yelling at her. The RP then reportedly sped off past the male and he felt she got too close to him. As he ran after the vehicle attempting to get the license plate, he tripped and fell causing scrapes to his hands and right arm. The RP left the area and did not wish to return. No crime was committed and appears to have been a misunderstanding.
